Joint Non-Lethal Weapons Program Needs and Requirements Panel

Purpose

- Educate Industry on a broad range of warfighter operational needs and requirements
- Allow Industry to interface with Service/Agency subject matter experts
- Address desired capability questions with regard to unique customer specifications
- Inspire Industry to develop next generation Non-Lethal Weapons

DoD NLW Definition

Weapons that are explicitly designed and primarily employed so as to incapacitate personnel or material, while minimizing fatalities, permanent injury to personnel, and undesired damage to property and the environment.

Panel Members

- Brig Gen James Shamess, USAF - Dir of Security Forces
- BGen Dennis Hejlik, SOCOM - Chief of Staff
- Rear Admiral James Olson, USCG – Dir of Operational Capabilities
- RADM (S) Michael Lefever, USN, Deputy director Expeditionary Warfare
- BGen (S) Thomas Waldhauser, USMC - Commander, Marine Corps Warfighting Lab
- Col Timothy Lamb, USA - Asst Commandant, Army MP School
- Mr. Johnny Wauchop – Force Planning & Employment, ASD (HD)

Core Capabilities

Counter Personnel – (CP)

Area Denial to Personnel

Clear Facilities & Structures

Incapacitate Individuals

Recommended Industry Solutions ???

Crowd Control

Core Capabilities

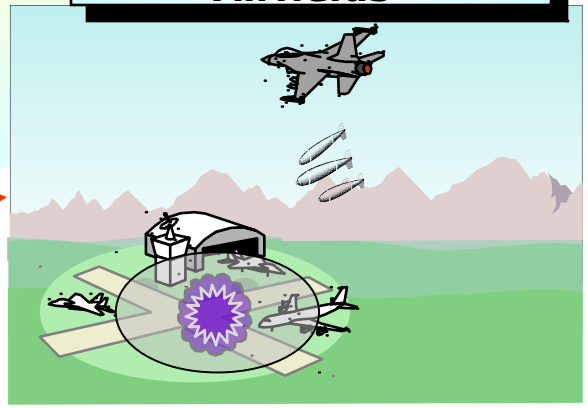
Counter Material– (CM)

Area Denial to Vehicles

Disable Vehicles

Disable Vessels

Disable Aircraft & Airfields



Recommended Industry Solutions ???